

About: Nina started her Nu Skin business in New Zealand 22 years ago while leading a very busy farming life, homeschooling her children and running a knitwear business to help support her childrens' horse riding endeavours. She immediately noticed the benefits of the products and understood the opportunity Nu Skin offered – this was a vehicle to build a business that could enable her family to have both time and money which would provide true freedom. Nina reached the highest levels of success many years ago and her business continues to grow exponentially in numerous countries. Alongside husband Derek, Nina has enjoyed many wonderful holidays courtesy of Nu Skin as a result of her achievements. She is now in a position to travel and spend time with family and friends all over the world while continuing to support her Nu Skin team globally.

- How has Nu Skin positively impacted your life? Nu Skin has been very rewarding financially and we are very grateful for the amazing products that positively impact our lives. The personal growth and friendships we have developed and helping others become successful is absolutely priceless, plus it is a really fun business.

- Why did you join Nu Skin? It was the best opportunity I'd ever seen to build a business alongside my family commitments. Nu Skin was a vehicle that could change the future for me, and others who followed the business model, were prepared to put in some consistent effort, and who never quit.

Random Trivia: Some 35 years ago we experienced the amazing healing properties of Aloe Vera in Mexico. I took a tiny plant back to New Zealand and grew thousands of these incredible plants which I gave away. I was ecstatic when I learned Nu Skin uses the same aloe in many of their products.
